Dear Distinguished Delegates and Exhibitors,

With great pleasure I warmly welcome you to DEFME 2023, International Scientific Conference on Digital Disruption in Economy, Finance, Management and Entrepreneurship.

We are gathered to explore the impact of digital disruption on our world. From its effects on our business practices to the potential for new job opportunities, digital transformation has already begun to revolutionize the way we communicate, work, and play.

We are thrilled to have such a diverse group of experts and professionals here today to share their knowledge and insights on this rapidly evolving field. We believe that through collaboration and constructive dialogue, we can make significant strides in driving digital transformation forward in a positive and meaningful way.

Let us use the knowledge we gained to continue to innovate and create a better world for everyone.

I look forward to meeting you in May 2023 in particular the DEFME 2023.
